Fortune Wallet Labs, Inc

Welcome to the future of Digital Asset Wallets

Meet the Digital Asset Wallet an entire generation will know.

Fortune Wallet™

A short but mighty history.

2021

Born from an idea three years earlier. Identifying a need in the industry for easy to use Digital Asset Wallets. (P) Patents filed.

2022

Confidence dies in the market leader (Ledger) and the need for a new, versatile wallet has opened up.

2023

Full Patents filed and granted (SA) with more being prepared. Moving to fundraising and development mode.

So, whats the problem?

Sending Crypto Sucks

Copy and paste

Copy and paste a wallet address. Hope its on the right chain. Send a test amount and clog up the network.

Bad Domains

Use a terrible domain like you're in a 90's internet startup. Only applicable for a handful of chains.

Username

Username that work only within specific networks. Unable to tell what chain they are on. Still send test amount.

The Fortune Wallet Fix

Solving problems.

Custom Username

A custom username including the chain and your identifier become your wallet address.

Easy send and receive

Never copy and paste, write down, or use a domain again. Just an easy to use custom username.

Never lose Crypto

Goodbye sending crypto to the wrong person or the wrong wallet type.

Business & Revenue Model

How the company will monetize

Initial period will be free to use. Building a user base is key to adoption.

Fortune Wallet will develop three models. Cell Phone Application, Web Based Application, and Web Based Plugin.

Fortune Wallet will begin selling special usernames, advertisement and promotional abilities, and charge a percentage of transaction fees for commercial clients

Patented Technology

Fortune Wallet uses proprietary, patented technology owned by the company to create a user experience like no other.

Full Patent granted in 'South Africa SAPTO' for the use of the Fortune Wallet Transfer System. Using only a custom name to transfer digital assets.

Full Patent 'with the United States Patent & Trademark Office' filed in the United States and pending approval.

Trademarked name 'Fortune Wallet' with MOU and Certification in place with Fortune Magazine group for use of the name.

Option to file 'Fortune Network' Trademark - Filed but abandoned.

Additional Sub-Patents to be filed based on technology set after funding relating to other Cryptographic assets and methods.

Trademark secures the use of a customizable username becoming a wallet address including a 'ticker' and 'username'.
